

The Ministry of Energy has today published guidelines for its EUR35 million energy storage scheme, previously approved by the Council of Ministers, aimed at promoting energy storage ...

Cyprus is poised to introduce large-scale renewable energy storage solutions by 2026, a move aimed at addressing the nation's increasing demand for effective energy management.

The Cyprus Electricity Authority is focused on four strategic priorities - tackling climate change, providing affordable electricity, ensuring energy security, and delivering high-quality customer service - EAC ...

By June 2026 at the latest, the distributed energy storage system with a total capacity of 120 MW, which is currently being implemented, will be operational and will function with full ...

Cyprus will have its first large-scale electricity storage infrastructure in place within 16 months, Minister of Energy George Papanastasiou said speaking at the Green Agenda Cyprus ...

After much anticipation, the Cyprus Parliament unanimously passed a pivotal law enabling the storage of electrical energy. This significant move, driven by persistent efforts from ...

Cyprus will begin implementing renewable energy storage systems in 2026 at the earliest, Energy Minister George Papanastasiou announced during parliamentary discussions on ...

The groundwork has been laid by measures including the 2023 adoption of a policy framework for the implementation and integration of energy storage and regulatory reforms adopted ...

The energy regulator has approved a significant battery storage system totalling 120MW across three locations to enhance grid stability and security, marking a crucial step for the island's ...

Cyprus energy storage policy updates

Web: <https://ovalventures.co.za>

