

EU Communications Emergency Base Station

Our team is dedicated to improving communication and coordination during crises and disasters, with innovative solutions that enhance the safety and security of citizens across Europe.

EUCCS enhances the resilience of public communication infrastructure and ensures Europe's capacity to react in times of crises.

Identified as a key priority in the European Commission Work Programme 2026, EUCCS aims to progressively deliver a secure, resilient, and fully interoperable critical communication ...

Emergency communications are defined primarily as a means of communication through interpersonal communications services between an end-user and the PSAP with the goal to request and receive ...

This initiative aims to establish a secure, interoperable communication network for public security across the EU by 2030. The EUCCS initiative was conceived following the Council Conclusions on the ...

Standards for total conversation access to emergency services are required to meet special needs for users living with disabilities and to ensure equivalence of access under Directive (EU) 2018/1972.

The generic name for the European Public Warning System is EU-ALERT. The letters EU are replaced by characters identifying a particular country (e.g. NL-ALERT signifying the Netherlands, UK-ALERT ...

During the first phase, each awarded team will provide MCX services for two countries, and the interconnect between them to realise international communication groups between the ...

The European Critical Communication System is a major initiative to make Europe safer and better connected during emergency. It will integrate communication systems used by first ...

EU Communications Emergency Base Station

Web: <https://ovalventures.co.za>

