

Southern Microgrid

Launched in 2021 with a 1.4-megawatt capacity, the microgrid is located on Williams Street, just south of Fifth Street in Tech Square. It is a joint project between Georgia Power and Georgia Tech.

Atlanta-based utility holding company Southern Company acquired microgrid developer PowerSecure about eight years ago in a merger valued at close to $425 million. Southern Company owns ...

PowerSecure, a Southern Company subsidiary, is a pioneer in developing distributed energy systems and in the integration of multiple energy resources for advanced microgrid ...

Southern Company subsidiary PowerSecure announced a strategic alliance with Advanced Microgrid Solutions ("AMS") to jointly develop and deploy behind-the-meter distributed ...

California's investor-owned utilities (Pacific Gas and Electric Company, San Diego Gas and Electric, and Southern California Edison) launched a new program to help provide clean, local ...

This initiative highlights Southern's dedication to innovation and establishes a new standard for environmental responsibility in the energy sector.

The microgrid project was developed by Southern Company's electric subsidiary, Georgia Power, with approval by the Georgia Public Service Commission. The project is expected to be ...

PowerSecure, a Southern Company subsidiary, is the nation's leading distributed energy innovation company. Our team of experts has developed, installed, managed and serviced 2+ GW of microgrid ...

Southern Microgrid

Web: <https://ovalventures.co.za>

